Let us love silence till the world is made to die in our hearts. Let us always remember death, and in this thought draw near to God in our heart - and the pleasures of this world will have our scorn. St. Isaac Jogues

Siblings of Jesus Series

By Fr Martin Nchedo Umeatuegbu

[52] How Should We Say the Rosary?

Dad: That last conversation on the Rosary was mind blowing, but it has left me wondering what's the best way to say the Rosary.

Mother: Yes, in addition I wonder what the fruits of the Rosary are.

Priest: Great concerns! That is a sign of someone who wants to grow in his or her love for God by love for the Mother of God. And so, the common response to your questions is that the fruits of the Rosary are tied to how it is prayed.

Dad: E holeee!! That's great, but can you elaborate more?

Priest: Rosary requires faith but sometimes our faith is challenged by difficult life experiences. When we grow lukewarm, then the best thing to do is to read the 15 Promises of the Rosary Mary gave to St Dominic.

Son: That's wonderful!

Priest: Those Promises will effect in a soul that confidence necessary. And so those promises are the fruits of saying the Rosary. Some of those fruits are divine in that they come from God to us, while some of them are human in that they help us in virtues that bind us to God.

Daughter: So those promises are true?

Priest: Oh Yes! Because God does not fail in His promises. What I recommend is that you read a promise of the Rosary a day and repeat it in cycle of 15 days. You will notice that in a month you have reflected on them twice.

Dad: This is a good formula.

Priest: What is more is that as St Louis Marie de Montfort says, the Magnificat (Mary's Song in praise of God (see Luke 1:46-55) is the fruit of the Hail Mary (the Angel's greeting to Mary (see Luke 1:28). So, be consoled that if you say 5 decades of the Rosary, Mary will offer 5 decades of the Magnificat to God on your behalf. The more Hail Mary you say, the more Magnificat she says for you. Arm yourselves with the holy rosary and pray it daily

Why Our Lady Asks for the Rosary?

- World Peace: Mary repeatedly asked for the rosary to end wars and heal a broken world.
- Spiritual Armor: She described the rosary as a powerful defense against evil and temptation.
- Simple Access: Anyone can pray the rosary anywhere, regardless of age, skill, or wealth.
