In the early part of the Fourth Century, St Martin of Tours was born in southern Europe to pagan parents. Even though his parents were pagan, It is believed that the young Martin encountered Christianity as a boy and embraced the faith from a young age. But his father was an officer in the Roman army and Martin was required to follow him into military service as a young man.

Soon after becoming a soldier, Martin encountered a naked beggar. Moved with compassion, Martin took off the cloak he was wearing, cut it in half, then gave one half of it to the naked man. That night, Martin was visited by Christ who told him that Martin had in fact clothed him when he gave the beggar his cloak. Soon after, Martin stepped away from military service. He had decided to give his life entirely to Christ.

Martin eventually established a monastery in Tours in 361 AD. A decade later, he was named bishop of Tours, an office he didn't want but accepted in service to the people of God. After serving for over two decades as a hardworking bishop, St. Martin of Tours died in 397 AD.

St. Anne Pro-Life Committee

WE NEED YOU — JOIN US NOW

Whatever your gifts or schedule, we'll find your fit.

Our Pro-Life Committee is at work through two campaigns: Serving the Hungry and Standing Against Abortion Expansion. We need more hands. Please prayerfully join us.

Serving the Hungry

Once a month, St. Anne feeds the poor and homeless at Our Lady of Guadalupe. Defending life means defending it at every stage, from the unborn child to the neighbor struggling to feed their family. One hour. One prayer. One meal served.

Standing Against Abortion Expansion

A mega abortion facility is under construction in Las Cruces, and a second is planned for Las Vegas, NM, just 60 miles from our parish. Our silence is not an option.
