Siblings of Jesus Series
By Fr Martin Nchedo Umeatuegbu
[55] Why Does the Priest Process at Mass?

For some time going forward in the series, our focus will be in understanding the deep meaning of the parts of the Mass. The reason for this is twofold. First is to see the connection between our Faith and our life, which on many occasions many do not see, hence, among the factors many relapse from the Faith. Second is to inspire us into celebrating and participating in the Mass with more reverence having God and not us at the center. So, in the present, let us reflect briefly on what procession means.

One noticeable thing in every Catholic Church is that when the people congregate on Sundays and even on weekday to celebrate the Mass, they will stand while the priest, deacon and altar servers are processing to the altar. Why do we stand and what does the procession mean? Procession signifies our earthly movement or pilgrimage towards Heaven. God Himself is present in this pilgrimage and as our King and Lord, He leads us in this pilgrimage to Heaven. As described by the Psalmist, humans see God's procession, which is solemn, where God, who is King, moves into His sanctuary (see Psalm 68:24).

The direction of this movement is towards the sanctuary, the holiest place in every Church, because it is there that Jesus who leads us in worship of the Eternal Father reveals Himself through a perfect offering of the Sacrifice of Himself for our redemption. The sanctuary which has the altar of sacrifice in it, therefore, is an earthly representation of Heaven which must be the proper direction of our lives. And so, we stand because our King is present in the priest is leading us to His Father. Sanctuary comes from the Latin word, "Sanctus" which means "Holy."

If the Sanctuary is holy, and if movement towards it to celebrate what is holy, then our holiness must remain our pathway to Heaven. This is we must prepare for the Mass in silence, prayer and interior recollection, and not in noise and distraction. For it aims to order and reorder our lives to the very one who leads us in worship. Procession reminds us that the Mass is the language of God, and Feast of Saints. It must command our reverence for our Lord, and this reverence must inspire us to receive Him in the state of grace and not in the state of mortal sin. The former is reverential, and the latter sacrilegous.

PS: I said this prayer at the end of one of my homilies, and some parishioners requested we put it in the bulletin. I have known it since 2005. Beautiful prayer composed by St Jean Jacques Olier, founder of the Sulpicians, in case you want to include it:

O Jesus living in Mary, come and live in Thy servants:

In the spirit of Thy holiness,
In the fullness of Thy virtues,
In the perfection of Thy ways,
In the truth of Thy virtues,
In the communion of Thy mysteries,
Have dominion over every hostile power,
In Thy spirit, to the glory of the Father.

Amen.
