Siblings of Jesus Series

By Fr Martin Nchedo Umeatuegbu

[53] How Should We Not Say the Rosary?

Son: Mom, honestly the explanation of the priest on how to say the Rosary is very simple and doable.

Mother: I agree with you, son. And now, I am considering being a Catholic because it is very clear that the Rosary contains the heart of the Gospels, which is the life of Jesus, which we meditate on when we read the Scriptures.

Father: If this happens, I will be the happiest person... But now, as we have learned how to say the Rosary, I think it will be great to know how not to say it.

Daughter: Fr, could you say something about this no matter how brief?

Priest: The guiding principle of prayer is applicable to the Rosary too: prayer is an action of the heart. Think deeply about what you pray.

Son: What does this mean?

Priest: It means that even when you pray vocally, let it not be empty; it must be pondered in your heart. There are three principles. So, how not to pray the Rosary is this: Do not pray it with deliberate distraction, do not pray it without recollection, and do not pray it in a rush. These make it bear fruit and make it efficacious.

Mother: Interesting! But what happens when you are not the cause of distraction that occurs?

Priest: Be at peace. What is needed for a good prayer is that your will is focused on conversing with God. As St Francis de Sales says, even when you fight such distractions you have said a good prayer, because in prayer we should not seek the delights of God, but the God of delights. So, do your best to prepare your mind for each Rosary, and offer the Rosary for numerous intentions.

Father: Well said!

Priest: Do not be afraid of praying the Rosary. Rather, be afraid of not praying it. If there is a person to pray, then there is God to answer.
